

BIG DAVE BARRY GIVES MATINEE.

Established at Lagoon With Dick Hyland and a Heavy-weight.

SCHRECK COMING HERE SOON.

Manager Alec Greggains is Due to Arrive Here This Afternoon From San Francisco.

Dave Barry, the coast boxer, who meets Mike Schreck at the sauna next Monday night, began putting on the finishing touches of his training at Lagoon yesterday afternoon, and this afternoon is giving his first matinee for the benefit of those who visit the resort. Quite a crowd of fight fans went out this afternoon to watch the boxer work out with his sparring partners.

Yesterday he took an eight-mile run and then put in the balance of the afternoon punching the bag and boxing. He has not tackled the three hours provided by Manager Bergeron of Lagoon, but he may do so today. Barry works out with "fighting" Dick Hyland, and the little fellow keeps Barry mighty busy. The coast man has now secured a heavyweight named "Red" Jenkins for a sparring partner, and as the latter is so much larger than Barry he keeps him pretty busy all the time they are working over weight. Manager Bergeron is anxious to have Barry. The former will be seen in a preliminary to Monday night's bout.

Manager Hogan will bring Schreck down from Ogden canyon about Thursday, and then until the night of the 27th the Dick Hyland will practice and do other light exercise at the Sauna. Yesterday Manager Willard Bean, of the club promoting the bout, paid a call on the manager of Lagoon. Bean says the prices are $1.50, $3 and $5, and that a great many have already been sold, indicating a big crowd.
